A

The first system shows the vocal line with lyrics: "She ain't got no mon - ey, her clothes — are kind of fun - ny, her hair — She talks kind of la - zy, and peo - ple say she's cra - zy, — and —". The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and a steady bass line.

D

The second system shows the vocal line with lyrics: "— is kind of wild and free. — } Oh, but — her life's a mys - ter - y. —". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a steady bass line.
